Technical outerwear and elevated heritage athleticwear are breathing new life into the men's market for spring. Retailers attending the upcoming trade shows in Las Vegas will be surrounded by a bevy of choices ranging from brightly colored bomber jackets to leatherlike joggers. For more on trade show trends, see pages MW6 to MW9.

An active lifestyle aesthetic infused with a hint of streetwear will be one dominant trend at the upcoming Last Vegas trade shows, with sweatpants, bomber jackets and drawstring shorts among the primary components.
